

Nexshop Automotive Use Case

Digital Showroom

Customers in the showroom can quickly review the information of their desired product. Leveraging customer experience in the store for immediate customer sales, and taking those factors into a variety of sales promotions on the spot.

Create innovative automobile experience zones

- Introduce space to experience digital contents using digital signage and mobile devices
- Integrated management of marketing content and devices