

Smart ERP Use Case

Chemicals, Manufacturing: Deploy a systemized business structure

Smart ERP enhances the efficiency of supply aligned with planning-execution, unify criteria between HQ and corporations to streamline global business infrastructure.
That builds a systemized business management.

Single Plan

Single plan to integrate customer-sales-manufacturing-purchasing, improving supply efficiency

Response to global environmental regulations

Remove risk factors in advance by taking actions in response to global regulations on chemicals

Global biz management

Global biz management with a consolidated operation of finance and original prices between corporations

Efficient facilities

Reduce facility breakdowns by adopting a maintenance system in advance