

Integrated point platform

Customers in Korea and overseas can have their transaction to wire/receive money through the prepaid cash charging function in collaboration with the card point providers. This integrated point platform will also support the payment at franchised stores.

- Share the information of the entire life cycle of digital voucher from issuance to settlement in a transparent manner
- Link the real financial account based on open APIs, Automated workflow