Data Center Service :
Managed Hosting Service

Partnership with a credible end-to-end service provider is essential for businesses to focus on value creation and other key tasks rather than complicated IT infrastructure management. Samsung SDS provides this professional partnership as well as offers organized management against increasing security threats in compliance with security standard of each customer, optimize investment cost by using data center facilities and help secure financial flexibility by converting fixed cost into variable cost.

SAMSUNG SDS

Stable infrastructure

- High-speed service using Internet backbone network directly interlocked with major Internet service providers

- Reliable service using professional data center infrastructure equipped with power, dustproof and disaster prevention facilities

Optimized system

- Procurement savings via strategic partnership with global vendors

- Integrated synergy effect by linking with operational service

Reliable operation

- 24/7/365 operation

- Batch management for installation and operational failure; customized managed service

Enhance work/cost efficiency + Offer fast service